UM GRADUATE STUDENTS PRESENT PAPERS AT CANADIAN CONFERENCE

MISSOULA--

Seven graduate students majoring in communication sciences and disorders at the University of Montana have been invited to present papers at the Canadian Speech and Hearing Association Convention in Vancouver, B.C., May 19-23.

The students, most of whom co-authored their papers with UM assistant Professor Michael J.M. Raffin, submitted their works to the association in January. After a lengthy process of evaluation, approximately one of every eight papers submitted was accepted for presentation.

Karen Aune, Missoula, will also present her extern paper, which she authored on her own after completing her externship at the University of Washington Hospital in Seattle.

Other graduate students, who co-authored their papers with Raffin, and their hometowns are: Joyce Forrester, Dillon; Rebecca Bingea, Seattle, Wash.; Lynne Harris, Anaconda; Carol Scott, Jackson, Miss.; Susan Bunting, Evergreen, Colo.; James Mussler, Flagstaff, Ariz.
